

THE DIGNITY RIGHTS PROJECT
WIDENER UNIVERSITY DELAWARE LAW SCHOOL

2ND VIRTUAL WORKSHOP: PROGRAM

17 November 2017 -- 10am-1pm (NY time)

Zoom Meeting: <https://widener.zoom.us/j/291962351>

Welcome to the 2nd Dignity Rights Virtual Workshop, sponsored by the Dignity Rights Project at Widener University Delaware Law. The purpose of the program is to share ideas, research, and applications in real time about dignity rights in different contexts from around the globe. The format is informal and conversational. Each topic begins with a short presentation (no more than 8 minutes, please), followed by a general discussion. The technology platform (Zoom) permits joining remotely at no cost; please click on the link above to join.

Session One: Dignity Rights Research Methods and Contexts: 10-11

Professors Erin Daly and Jimmy May, Introductions and Welcome

1. Jari Taho (Albania), Methodological Challenges to Dignity Rights Research
2. Gabriela Oanta (Spain), Dignity Rights in the European Union
3. Antonio Legerén (Spain), Dignity Rights and the Council of Europe
4. Evelin Lindner and Linda Hartling, Humiliation and Dignity Studies
5. J. Brendan O'Neill (US), Dignity and the Death Penalty

Discussion 11:00 - 11:30

Session Two: Dignity Rights and Environmental Justice: 11:30-12:30

1. Michele Roberts (US), Environmental Justice in the U.S.
2. Alexandra Aragão (Portugal), Preventive Mapping of Endemic Environmental Indignity
3. Sara Seck (Canada), Resource Extraction and the Dignity of Women and Girls
4. Dina Townsend (South Africa), Mine Closures in South Africa
5. Juan Manuel Rivero Godoy (Uruguay), Environmental Dignity Rights in the Inter-American Court of Human Rights
6. Ana Lucia Maya Aguirre (Colombia) & Michael Logan (US), Constitutional Dignity Rights for Communities Affected by the Loss of Coral Reefs due to Climate Change

Discussion and concluding remarks 12:30 - 1:00

Thank you for joining the conversation. Profs. Erin Daly (edaly@widener.edu) & Jimmy May (jrmay@widener.edu) For help with technical difficulties, please text 215.264.5978 (Erin) or 302.983.0233 (Jimmy).